

Host an Apprentice:

Do you know of a business that is community-focused with a team that is committed to giving back? Are they able to serve individuals in the southwest Atlanta area?

Blueprint 58 is looking for small businesses who are willing to partner with us by providing apprenticeship positions to one of our participants in our Ready for Work program. Our program begins June 7th, 2021, and is an 8-week job readiness and apprenticeship program for women with school-aged or younger children in the NPU-V, with a focus on Adair Park and Pittsburgh communities in southwest Atlanta.

The program specifically targets mothers who are currently unemployed or underemployed and provides them with an opportunity to learn from someone in a skilled position.
